

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Guía Peñín

2019. Gramona consolidates its leadership in the sparkling category with six references on the podium.

2018. Enoteca Gramona reaffirms once again the positioning of the top cavas reaching the 'Olympus of the Peñín Guide'. In its latest edition, that of 2018, two of its vintages, 1997 and 2002, chosen as Best Cava with 98 points, being the highest punctuation given in this edition. Both vintages are described by the guide as cavas 'blessed by a wide range of registers [...], all surrounded by a very long and fine bubble and with a structured finish'.

2017. In the last edition, Enoteca 2001 was awarded as the Best Cava and Best Wine in Spain, which was considered by the guide itself as '[...] a historic event of great significance, for opening a new path in the development of the appellation that supports the most sophisticated elaborations [...]', since for the first time in the history of Spanish wine, a sparkling wine is chosen as the best Guide of wines. Enoteca Gramona gets 99 points, only granted five times in the 27 years of history of the most widespread and translated Guide of wines of Spain.

Decanter

Top Wine Magazine

'Gramona is more sumptuous and refined than I ever dreamed a cava could be...'

Andrew Jefford.

Falstaff

2018. Celler Battle best cava with 96 points. III Llustros and Imperial accompany it on the podium.

The Wine Advocate

Robert Parker

'Let us consider what is unquestionably the most impressive portfolio of cavas that money can buy'. Neal Martin.

The Wall Street Journal

'They might have taken 130 years, but on this evidence -the tasting of Gramona III Llustros-, it seems that cava has finally earned a place on the top table of sparkling wines.' Will Lyons

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

The New York Times

‘Gramona, the before and after of cava.’
Eric Asimov.

The world of Fine Wine

Top Wine Magazine

Catalan nobility. (...) “This article is for lovers and regular drinkers of Champagne, to tear off their blinkers and discover what they have been missing: a Mediterranean sparkling – wine of equivalent nobility”.

Enoteca Gramona: Best Cava in blind tasting. 96 points.

Michel Bettane

Top French Wine Critic

Choose Gramona Celler Batlle and III Lustrós in his book
‘Les 300 Plus Grand Vins du Monde’.

Berry Bros & Rudd

One of the oldest and most prestigious wine merchants in the UK (1698).

‘Surprising. We have found a cava that rivals the finest Champagnes’

Wine Enthusiast

Top Wine Magazine The U.S.

Magazine states that Gramona is one of the 10 best Spanish wines.

World Encyclopedia of Champagne & Sparkling Wine

(Christie’s Edition)

‘Gramona is by far the finest cava around, and belongs among the greatest sparkling wines of the world.’ Tom Stevenson.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Jancis Robinson MW

2015. In her last analysis of the sector situates, after the blind tasting, Gramona III Lustrós the cava with the best punctuation.

2016. Gramona Celler Batlle with the best punctuation in the cavas annual blind tasting.

Wine Life

One of the most influential wine magazines in the Netherlands. Gramona Imperial 2010 Best Sparkling Wine after a blind tasting of 200 references of champagne and sparkling wines of the world.

‘Gramona Imperial has been positioned as the best sparkling wine you can buy in the Netherlands, even ahead of renowned champagnes.’ Niek Beute, European Champagne Ambassador in the Netherlands.

Top 50 Most Admired Wine Brands 2016

Gramona was placed 26th in Drinks International magazine’s ‘Top 50 Most Admired Wine Brands of the World 2016’ ranking. It is the first time a traditional method sparkling wine has been included in this list. It is also a first for a cava.

Guia de Vins de Catalunya

Enoteca 2002 Brut Nature, Best Sparkling Wine by the Vins de Catalunya Guide 2018. With this distinction, Enoteca consolidates its recognition in this guide since it was already chosen Best Sparkling Wine of the year in 2015 and Best Wine of the Guide in 2013, among all categories.

Guía de Vinos Gourmets

In rigorous blind tasting, this heterogeneous group of experts consider Gramona, for 17 years, the Best Cava. In its latest edition in 2018, Enoteca 2001 enters in the club of +99 as the Best Sparkling Wine and is ranked among the best rated wines of the guide in its history. In this same edition, the 2002 vintage also obtains 98 points.